“I remember the moment I was given my boyhood sledge as a Christmas present. I remember ripping the wrapping paper off and being overwhelmed by the curves of the wood. They had such beauty, such energy. They couldn’t wait to go places.

I wanted Luge to capture something of the magic of that moment. I wanted it to evoke that raw excitement of childhood, that sense of discovering something that beckons you to adventure.”

Nick Munro, designer of the Luge collection

Luge

Luge is ideal for executive reception areas and hospitality environments. Both side and coffee tables come with a veneered tabletop, with a white table top available on request.
