The Layla collection is the perfect example of classic, simple design, where less is definitely more. The collection can be further enhanced by a range of complementary coffee tables.

This image shows the Layla three-seater sofa with tubular frame base, and the 650mm x 650mm coffee table with sandblasted glass top.
The four-seater sofa option with a tubular frame base, and the 650mm x 1400mm coffee table with a black glass top.
Layla is available as an arm chair, 3-seater and 4-seater sofa. The Layla Landscape offers a range of modular units including; a corner unit, right hand unit, left hand unit, chair, sofa, single bench and double bench. All options are available with either a steel tubular frame or polished aluminium legs.

The Layla range can be further enhanced by a selection of complementary coffee tables. The coffee tables are available with either a square or rectangular glass top which can be provided in clear, sandblasted or a coloured finish. The coffee table range has a steel tubular frame.
